

PNNL Electronics Systems Group 2008 Summer Intern Position

Seeking Electrical or Computer Engineering Student who will in the fall of 2008 is a senior or grad student with GPA of 3.3 or higher. Individual must have taken a high level language programming language class preferably with microcontroller lab experience. Tasks will include microcontroller firmware programming and associated code and hardware troubleshooting. Individual will work in a mentored team environment and must have strong communication skills along with the ability to work independently.

Contact Lisa Zurk for more information: zurkl@cecs.pdx.edu, FAB 160-17